

Ming Keong (John) Lee

HB 2757, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH 03755, United States • +1-617-412-5816 • ming.k.lee@dartmouth.edu

EDUCATION

Dartmouth College

Hanover, NH

Bachelor of Arts in Economics

Expected Jun 2011

- GPA: 3.56/4.00; SAT: 800CR, 760M, 780W
- James O. Freedman Presidential Scholar in Sociology Department
- University College London History Department term abroad (Fall 2009)

WORK EXPERIENCE

OKM Consulting

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Summer Consultant

Jul–Sep 2010

- Led and managed presentation development as lead intern for a presentation to the Prime Minister's office on original public-private partnership proposals for the hospitality & tourism education sector using a Blue Ocean Strategy-type framework
- Led analysis and presentation development of large electoral roll datasets, providing a quantitative framework for the Democratic Action Party (DAP) National Elections Committee's strategic planning in state elections
- Created implementation-oriented presentation to the Chief Minister and cabinet of the wealthiest state in Malaysia, which formed the basis of a 3-year plan for statewide administrative and economic reform
- Researched viability of grassroots-level funding and presented findings to the DAP National Elections Committee, demonstrating an untapped source of potential donations for the party

People's Alliance (Pakatan Rakyat)

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Policy Analyst

Jun–Sep 2007; Jun–Sep 2009

- Analyzed earnings and ownership stakes of firms for evidence of corruption and graft, resulting in exposure of the multi-billion dollar Port Klang Free Zone scandal
- Contributed and wrote up economic policy proposals, forming part of historic inaugural coalition manifesto
- Summarized education policy ideas, forming part of the DAP alternative federal government budget

Centre for Public Policy Studies

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Research Assistant

Jun–Sep 2008

- Analyzed oil royalty data using Excel, contributing to research on allocation of oil and natural gas revenue
- Summarized available literature and data on the Malaysian service sector, resulting in an academic paper

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Malaysia Forum

Multiple Locations

Steering Committee Member

Sep 2007–present

- Founded London branch of non-profit group promoting open dialogue about Malaysian civics and politics
- Provided leadership in logistical planning and running breakout sessions in three annual conferences

Nelson A. Rockefeller Center at Dartmouth College

Hanover, NH

Rockefeller Leadership Fellow

May 2010–present

- Cooperated with 20 other fellows selected from 100 applicants in studying and contextualizing leadership

The Invisible Hand

Hanover, NH

Co-Editor-in-Chief

Sep 2008–Dec 2009

- Managed staff recruitment, paper selection and logistics for publishing the undergraduate economics journal

SKILLS, ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

- Technical skills: STATA, PHP, SQL; Linux hobbyist and web developer
- Freelance writer; write column for The Malaysian Insider and edited three books on Malaysian politics
- Spoke to 500 students at the 2009 Malaysian Student Leaders Summit on civics and activism